

INFORMATION BULLETIN

WORKFORCE INVESTMENT ACT

Number: WIAB00-105

Date: June 19, 2001

Expiration Date: 12/31/01
69:31:is:4729

TO: WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT COMMUNITY

SUBJECT: YOUTH VISTA 2001 CONFERENCE

This information bulletin is to announce the Youth Vista 2001 Conference, to be held July 29-31, 2001, at the Sacramento Radisson Hotel. This Conference is a collaborative effort between the Employment Development Department, the Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs, and the Department of Mental Health. This collaborative effort will demonstrate a model system of coordinated and comprehensive services for youth engaged in, or at high risk of, committing juvenile crime.

The purpose of the conference is to offer an opportunity for stakeholders, collaboratives and interested parties to learn and share information to further youth opportunities and help youth make positive and productive lifestyle choices. The conference will feature over 30 workshops. Conference workshop topics include: How to Employ Gang Members and other At-Risk Youth, Youth Programs under the Workforce Investment Act, Youth Service Strategies, Residential High Schools for Foster Care Youth, Youth Development, Substance Abuse Treatment, Youth Service Provider Partnerships, and many more.

The conference registration fee is $75 if you register by July 20, 2001. The late registration fee (after July 20) is $100. Phone registration is available by calling the California State University at Sacramento (CSUS), Conference and Training Services Hotline, 1-800-858-7743. Additional information is posted on the CSUS Web site: http://www.rce.csus.edu/pdfs/cts_YouthVista.pdf.

/S/ BILL BURKE
Chief